Circuit Court of Calhoun County.

We are authorized to announce BARTLETT OWEN, Esq., as a candidate for Tax Assessor of Calhoun County.

The next session of Miss. M. B.
Francis' Music School will commence on the first Monday in August.

Grand Ratification Meeting.
The Largest and most unanimous Political Meeting ever held in the County.

Agreeably to previous appointment and notice, a large portion of the Democratic party of Calhoun County, assembled at the Court-house in this place on Monday last, to ratify the nomination, by the Constitutional Democratic Convention at Baltimore, of Breckinridge and Lane as candidates for President and Vice President of the United States.

The meeting was organized by calling Col. J. R. Clark to the Chair, and appointing J. F. Grant, Sec'y; after which the following resolution was offered by G. C.
Ellis, Esq., and unanimously adopted:

Resolved, by the Democracy of Calhoun County, That recognizing the Convention which nominated John C. Breckinridge for President and Joseph Lane for Vice President, as the true National Democratic Convention, we do most cordially ratify and endorse its nominations; and to these most noble and true patriots, we pledge our willing and active support.

After the adoption of the Resolution a committee of three was appointed, consisting of Hon. T. A. Walker, G. C. Ellis and B. A. Brooks, Esqs., to wait upon J.
T. Morgan, Esq., one of the Electors for the State at large and invite him to address the meeting. Soon after Mr. Morgan took his station at the Judge's seat, in a chaste, elegant, and argumentative speech, frequently applauded, enchain-ed the attention of the vast concourse of people.

The letters of acceptance from Messrs.
Breckinridge and Lane, were then read by G. C. Ellis, Esq., and soon after the meeting adjourned.

According to previous announcement, Mr. Curry was expected, but was prevented from coming by the dangerous illness of a member of his family.

In conclusion, we need only say that this was the largest, most unanimous and orderly political meeting ever held in our County; and gave the most perfect assurance, if any had been needed, that Calhoun County, on the 2nd Monday of November next, would roll up a majority of at least 2000 over all other combined.

Ball Room Meeting.

We, in company with Col. D. P. Forney, Hon. A. Woods, G. C. Whitley, Esq., Warren Harris, and W. J. Willis, Esq., of this place, and also many of our Coun-tymen from Chocoma valley and the eastern portion of our county, attended the ballroom meeting on Saturday last, at Pine Grove, in Harrison County, Ga.

This meeting was called, and a public dinner given by the friends of the Georgia and Western Railroad from Atlanta to Jacksonville, and the Griffin and Deatur, Railroads, as a testimonial of their friendship and interest in these important works of Internal Improvement.

The people commenced crowding into the village at an early hour in the day, in fact many had arrived there on the night before. About half after ten o'clock, the people were invited to assemble at the stand, to hear the speeches and propositions relative to stock subscriptions, &c.

A financier had been prepared and sent for the ladies arranged in front. Dr. J.
N. Simmons, of Atlanta, in a speech of considerable length, first addressed the meeting, confining himself principally to facts and figures relative to this enterprise, and others connected with it, pointing that which would pay, and be a good investment, which was well received by the audience, and proved Dr. S. to be an able, faithful and energetic friend of this enterprise. Next, our County and State was well represented in the person of our fellow citizen, G. C. Whitley, Esq., who made an interesting speech, replete with valuable information relative to the benefits of railroads in enhancing the value of real estate, and in diversifying the labor and developing the resources of the communities through which they passed.

He was followed by Col. L. H. D. Williams, who confirmed himself in the position of a friend of the enterprise. He expounded and refuted the false reports relative to the characters and safety of the withdrawal of the stock taken by the Georgia Railroad Company. He stated, not only that the Geo.

R. R. Co. had not and could not withdraw the stock $250,000, but was ready to double it if necessary; and also that the South Carolina road was willing to loan them its loans, if necessary to procure iron—that in a few days, the survey and location of the road would be finished a distance of 40 miles, and immediately put under contract—and in conclusion, that for one, he had put his shoulder to the wheel, and never intended to relax his exertions, until the whistle of the locomotive was heard in Jacksonville. Col. Davis is an earnest, persevering and energetic advocate of this great enterprise, and is certainly entitled to the grateful thanks of his friends for his successful exertion this far. At the conclusion of his speech, dinner was announced. The Ladies, Orators and invited guests from a distance, conducted by the Marshals, were marched to the table, and partook of a bountiful and sumptuous repast provided for the occasion. Afterwards the tables were refilled by the people in attendance; and we must say that we have never seen more harmony and good order prevail on an occasion of the kind, where so large a crowd were in attendance.

After dinner, the discourse of people was again assembled at the stand. The number in attendance was variously estimated at from 1000 to 2000, a large portion of which were ladies, seated together, immediately in front of the stand; and the speaker who gazed upon that fair panorama, was not only encouraged for the success of the enterprise which called them together, but as he saw the light of beauty and benevolence beam from so many fair faces, he could but have thought, that the climate of that portion of our Sister State, was very favorable to the development of female charms.

The books of subscription were then opened, after some preliminary remarks by Dr. Simmons and Col. Davis. Near $7000 had been subscribed, as rapidly as the names could be put down, and the attention of the crowd was attracted, and the assembly for a time broken up by the appearance of a Fantastic Company. They were afterwards again rallied, and the work of subscribing renewed. We left about 5 o'clock, and do not know how much was finally obtained. At Buchanan, in the same County, a few days before a subscription of some $12,000 was obtained.

In conclusion, we tender, for ourselves and fellow-citizens who were in attendance to Mr. Robinson of the Harrison Hotel, the Committee of Arrangements and Marshals of the day, our grateful acknowledgments, for their friendly consideration and polite attentions. We hope soon to be enabled to reciprocate these favors on this side of the State line.

Jacksonville Female Academy.

Having alluded recently, at the close of the Examination, at considerable length, in terms of unequalled approbation to this Institution, under its present competent and accomplished superintendent, it only remains for us now to invite attention to the notice, by the Secretary, of the commencement of the next session, which may be found in another column. The next session will commence on the 20th of August.

From the entire satisfaction heretofore given by Miss Snow, a full school and increase of patronage is confidently anticipated; and it is also important, for the convenience of the Teacher and advantage of the pupils, that they commence with the first day of the session that they may be properly classed.

We invite attention to the notice in another column, of the commencement of the next term of the Military College of the Nashville University, together with a list of the faculty.

With the high standing of this deservingly popular Institution, our readers are already somewhat familiar, and for Catalogues, or additional information, we need only refer them to any member of the Faculty.

Some weeks ago, we stated upon the authority of some of our exchange papers that Mr. Fillmore had declared his intention to support the Black Republican candidates for President and Vice President. On Monday last we were informed by two friends of Mr. Fillmore that he had contradicted the statement
of his own signature and declared his preference for Bell and Everett. We have no paper containing Mr. Fillmore's letter, but presume the statement of his friends to be correct.

We invite attention to the advertisement of the Principal and President of the Chautauque River Institute.

The 2nd session of this Institution commenced on Monday July 24, 1860.
Gaylesville, the village where this Institute is located, is pleasant, healthy and easy of access from the surrounding country; and from the well known competency and deserved popularity, as successful Teachers of the Principal and Preceptor, a liberal patronage is confidently anticipated.

LARGE COTTON.—Mr. J. L. Whiteside, brought up the other day, from his river plantation, several stalks of cotton over four feet in height, and one of which had an one hundred and thirty bolls, blooms and squares. Pretty fair specimens, we should say for a dry season.

THE CHICKEN WAR.—We were shown yesterday by W. J. Willis, Esq., a letter addressed to himself, from Rev. N.
Givens of Arkansas, near the Indian border, which stated that they were hourly in expectation of a massacre by the large body of revolutionary Indians, to the number of several thousand. He says these Indians have been instigated by white Missionaries, who are abolitionists, and that they have organized and express a determination to carry on a war exterminating in the Cherokee Nation, until slavery is abolished.

The same letter also says, in speaking of the state of political parties, that nine-tenths of the Democracy of Arkansas will go for Breckinridge and Lane.

We have received several communications from our friends, which we are compelled to defer until next week.

Our readers will find in to-day's paper a notice of the times and places appointed for public speaking by the Electors for this District.

On Friday before the third Sabbath in August, next, Eld. Wm. Mosely, of O., will preach at Post Oak Spring, also on Saturday, Sunday, thereafter at Shiloh
Church, on Olathe creek.

The Electors for the 7th Congressional District, who are to meet at the Calhoun County Court-house, on the 20th of August, are: J. T. Morgan, of Dallas; J. S.
Dickinson, of Clarke; C. C. Bartlett, of Marion; J. W. Garrett, of Perry; J. N.
Kennedy, of Lauderdale; R. W. Bridges,
of Madison; H. W. Cobb, of Shelby.

Mr. Emerson, in his address through your columns, to give your numerous readers a brief sketch of a Sabbath school "celebration," which came off at Gadsden, on the 4th inst., feeling myself repaid for the trouble if they enjoy it half as well as I did the celebration.

The teachers and pupils, numbering something over two hundred met at the Baptist church, formed a procession;
and marched to the grove, where a comfortable abode and seats were arranged.
The blessings of Divine providence were invoked in a very earnest and appropriate prayer by the Chaplain, Rev.
Mr. Willoughby. Then the Declaration of Independence was read by Mr. Slack, who in a clear firm voice narrated the different acts of tyranny with which our forefathers were oppressed. Then followed the 4th of July Oration by Parson Harris, which was replete with sound logic and argument and stirring appeals to the patriotism and modesty of the audience, and a rule of the fair land, lest the lowering clouds of fanaticism raised in the North by political demagogues, should burst over our heads, and overwhelm with anarchy, degradation and ruin the freest republican government, ever instituted on the earth. Then came the Sabbath school Oration by Rev. Mr. Potter, who in urging the claims of the Sabbath school, which the citizens of Gadsden all good citizens, gave substantial information to convince all of the happy moral influence it exerts on society. It is certainly great encouragement to the friends of the institution to know that the first Sabbath school was formed just eighty years ago, and they now number one million teachers, five millions of pupils, and a regular Sabbath school scholar has never been known to make his way to the Penitentiary, and I think also; that the church receives a great many accessions from the Sabbath school. Thus the road to heaven.

The whole of the exercises were im-persed and enlivened by strains of music both vocal and instrumental, and about half past twelve, dinner being
which was also growing under the weight of luxuries and dainties heaped upon it, as well as the substantial of life, where was an abundance for all and to which all were made welcome.

In truth Mr. Editor I have never witnessed a Celebration pass off more quietly, orderly, and harmoniously, than did this one. For I did not observe but one individual the least intoxicated, which speaks well for the citizens of Gadsden, and which I think may be said they are fairly out of the woods, and the appellation of a one horse town is inadmissible here.

Yours respectfully,
CALHOUN.

Oxford, Ala. July 22d, 1860.

My Grand—Sir I am mentioned in your paper of the 17th, a valuable discovery of the kind in the United States.
About ten years ago I was in company with another gentleman on Wm. Whiteman's land, and while stepping off a line of Rotten stones I ever saw. I have had some experience in using Rotten stones in an Army, and I pronounce that specimen good.

Yours respectfully,
P.

Breckinridge vs. Douglas.

Douglas and Breckinridge are a long way apart upon the territorial issues. We placed in juxtaposition extracts from Douglas' Freeport speech and Breckinridge's Frankfort speech of December last. They need no comment.

LINCOLN'S QUESTION.—Can the people of the United States Territory, in any lawful way, against the wishes of any citizen of the United States, exclude slavery from their territory? I think slavery from their territory, and I think the formation of a State Constitution is, can the people of a Territory in any lawful way, against the wishes of any citizen of the United States, exclude slavery from their limits prior to the adoption of a State Constitution? (Right.)

yesterday by W. J. Willis, Esq., a letter addressed to himself, from Rev. N.
Givens of Arkansas, near the Indian border,
these Indians have been instigated by
white Missionaries, who are abolitionists,
slavery is abolished.

go for Breckinridge and Lane.

for this District.

August, next, Eld. Wm. Mosely, of O.,
Church, on Olathe creek.

gust, are: J. T. Morgan, of Dallas; J. S.
Marion; J. W. Garrett, of Perry; J. N.
Kennedy, of Lauderdale; R. W. Bridges,
of Madison; H. W. Cobb, of Shelby.

half as well as I did the celebration.

Baptist church, formed a procession;
and marched to the grove, where a comfortable abode and seats were arranged.
propriate prayer by the Chaplain, Rev.
Mr. Willoughby. Then the Declaration
with sound logic and argument and
fanaticism raised in the North by political demagogues, should burst over
lican government, ever instituted on
school. Thus the road to heaven.

of Gadsden, and which I think may be
horse town is inadmissible here.

Yours respectfully,
CALHOUN.
